

Missa in Cantu: A Seminar in the Sung Mass for Celebrants

October 17-19, 2007, St. John Cantius, Chicago, Illinois

“For the celebration of the Eucharist with the people, especially on Sundays and feast days, a form of sung Mass (Missa in cantu) is to be preferred as much as possible, even several times on the same day.” Musica Sacra, 1967.

The sung Mass remains the normative form in the Roman Rite – but it is not the norm in most parishes. Hence this seminar: to train priests in the sung Mass in English and Latin. The seminar includes tracks for the new and old forms of the Roman Rite.

The goal of the seminar is to provide a full initiation into the method and manner of singing the Mass. Even if you have never attempted it before, this seminar will provide the training you need so that the liturgy can be made more beautiful.

The seminar is sponsored by the Church Music Association of American in conjunction with St. John Cantius Catholic Church in Chicago (825 N. Carpenter St., Chicago, Illinois). The event will take place on the premises of St. John Cantius in Chicago. It begins at noon on Wednesday and concludes with lunch on Friday. The price of the full seminar is $165. The deadline for registration is September 17, 2007 (or until all spaces are full) For more information, see MusicaSacra.com/events or write programs@musicasacra.com
