

For the first time ever, the

Church Music Association of America (CMAA)

...a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of sacred music in the Catholic liturgy, will hold its annual Sacred Music Colloquium at St. John the Evangelist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Join us June 30 – July 6, 2014 and expand your knowledge of Gregorian chant and sacred polyphony at the most in-depth teaching conference and retreat in the world.

Speakers include:

- Dr. William Mahrt, Stanford University
- Reverend Father Christopher Smith, priest from Beaufort, S.C. and well-loved ChantCafe blogger, and
- Dennis McNamara, Ph.D., Assistant Director and Faculty Member, Liturgical Institute at University of St. Mary of the Lake and author of Catholic Church Architecture and the Spirit of the Liturgy (2009).

Registration is open to all. For more information and complete schedule, Visit the CMAA website at <http://musicasacra.com/colloquium/> or call 505.263.6298

All liturgies and plenary lectures open to the public
