

Music For the Ages:

A Children's Chant Workshop

with
Scott Turkington

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2013
9:30 AM - 4:30 PM

In this day-long workshop for both children and adults, acclaimed chant scholar Scott Turkington will explain the basic mysteries of the Church's own music, Gregorian chant. What is it for? How do we sing it? Is it really accessible to children of all ages? The answer is a resounding "yes"! Together, the participants will sing a number of chants and learn to read traditional Gregorian chant notation, leading up to the participants singing for the 5:15 PM Vigil Mass. No previous experience is needed!

Registration: $50 per child; $60 per adult.

Free admission for one adult with each paid child admission.

Lunch is included.

On-site registration opens at 8:30 AM.
